21 22 23 24 25 26 27 28	Plaintiff alleges: 1. Plaintiff CRAIG ALLEN ROG Diego County, State of California. 2. Defendants EQUIFAX INFOR ("EQUIFAX") is a business entity, form	RMATION SERVICE	S LLC

California as a credit bureau which receives negative credit information about consumers and which then publishes such information in credit reports available to its subscribers.

- 3. Defendant JP MORGAN CHASE NATIONAL (CHASE") is a creditor which, among other activities, reports allegedly delinquent debts to credit bureaus and is a "furnisher" under the Fair Credit Reporting Act.
- 4. Defendants DOES 1-10 are individuals and business entities, form unknown, doing business in the State of California as credit reporting agencies, debt collection agencies, creditors or other persons or entities which engage in credit reporting and/or debt collection. DOES 1-10, Inclusive, includes individuals or business entities doing business in the State of California as credit reporting agencies, debt collectors and/or creditors who have refused to delete accounts of plaintiff that were procured through identity theft, mixed file or other manner of recording an inaccurate credit account, even after plaintiff has notified them of the false or inaccurate derogatory, and also who have reported such accounts as derogatory credit references to credit reporting agencies.
- 5. Plaintiff does not know the true names and capacities, whether corporate, partnership, associate, individual or otherwise of Defendants sued herein as Does 1 through 10, inclusive, under the provisions of Section 474 of the California Code of Civil Procedure. Plaintiff is informed and believes and on that basis alleges that Defendants Does 1 through 10, inclusive, are in some manner responsible for the acts, occurrences and transactions as officers, directors or managing agents of Defendants or as its agents, servants, employees and/or joint venturers and as set forth in this complaint, and that each of them are legally liable to Plaintiff, as set forth below and herein:
- a) Said Officers, directors or managing agents of Defendants personally acted willfully with respect to the matters alleged in this complaint;

- b) Said officers, directors or managing agents of Defendants personally authorized, approved of, adopted and/or ratified the acts alleged herein or the agents, servants, employees and/or joint venturers of Defendants did so act;
- c) Said officers, directors or managing agents of Defendants personally participated in the acts alleged herein of Defendants;
- d) Said Officers, directors or managing agents of Defendants personally had close supervision of their agents, servants, employees and/or joint venturers of Defendants;
- e) Said Officers, directors or managing agents of Defendants personally were familiar with the facts regarding the matters alleged herein;
- f) Said Officers, directors or managing agents of Defendants personally failed to investigate the circumstances appertaining to the acts alleged herein. They also failed and refused to repudiate the herein alleged actions and failed to redress the harm done to Plaintiff. Further, said Officers, directors, or managing agents of Defendants failed and refused to punish or discharge the said agents, servants, employees and/or joint venturers of Defendants, even after learning of the acts of the agents, servants, employees and/or joint venturers of Defendants. Plaintiffs will seek leave to amend this complaint to set forth the true names and capacities of said fictitiously named Defendants as enumerated above, together with appropriate charging allegations, when learned.
- 6. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and thereon allege that at all relevant times herein each Defendant, whether actually or fictitiously named, was the principal, joint venturer, agent, servant or employee of each other Defendant, and in acting as such within the course, scope and authority of such relationship, took some part in the acts and omissions hereinafter set forth, by reason of which each Defendant is liable to Plaintiff for the relief prayed for in this complaint, and any future amended complaint. Further, Plaintiff alleges that each act alleged herein, whether by a named Defendants or fictitiously named Defendants or otherwise, was expressly authorized or ratified, as these terms are used in California Civil Code Section 3294(b), by each and every other Defendant herein, whether named or fictitiously named.

FIRST CAUSE OF ACTION

[VIOLATION OF THE FAIR CREDIT REPORTING ACT AGAINST EQUIFAX, CHASE DOES 1-10, INCLUSIVE.

- 7. Plaintiff re-alleges and incorporates all preceding paragraphs as though set forth in full in this cause of action.
- 8. Plaintiff is a consumer as this term is defined by 15 U.S.C. Sec. 1681a(c) of the Fair Credit Reporting Act. All defendants are "furnishers" as defined by 15 U.S.C. 1681s-2 of the Fair Credit Reporting Act, except EQUIFAX, who is a "consumer reporting agencies" as that term is defined in 15 U.S.C. Section 1681a (f).
- 9. On or about May 2007, Plaintiff received an unsolicited offer from CHASE for a zero percent interest rate credit card on transferred balances for a period of time of over one year. Plaintiff applied for the CHASE card and was approved with a $30,000.00 credit limit, and was issued a credit card with an account ending in 1505.
- 10. On or about October 26, 2007, Plaintiff received a letter in the mail from CHASE Member Services congratulating him on his move to New York City.

 Plaintiff immediately called their fraud Prevention Department and advised them that he had not moved to New York, and requested that they freeze his account.

 The account was cancelled and a new account was opened ending in 4931.
- 11. On or about February 2008, Plaintiff received a second letter from CHASE, again congratulating him on his move to New York City, this time making reference to his replacement card ending in 1505. Again Plaintiff immediately called CHASE's Fraud Prevention Department, and this time told them to freeze all activity on any accounts in his name due to a security breach in progress.

- 12. On or about March 2008, Plaintiff received correspondence from IndymacBank informing him that his home equity account had been temporarily frozen due to an adverse change in his financial circumstances. This decision was based on a significant reduction in his credit score.
- 13. After Plaintiff's call advising them to freeze any new activity in his name, and without Plaintiff's knowledge, CHASE apparently issued a third card in his name ending in 2555 that was sent directly to a New York address. CHASE was also sending Plaintiff's monthly statements to the New York address as well.
- 14. On or about May 3, 2008, Plaintiff received a collection notice by fax from NCO Financial Systems. This statement was addressed to Craig Rogers at 3125 Park Avenue, Apt. 11C, Bronx, NY 10451-4076.
- 15. On or about September 18, 2008, Plaintiff received correspondence from CHASE's in-house attorney indicating intention to file suit to recover the balance owed on account #...4931, Plaintiff had never missed a payment until CHASE stopped sending him statements (they were being mailed to the New York address).
- 16. On or about September 26, 2008, Plaintiff sent the first of six letters to CHASE outlining the identity theft issue and the sequence of events that led to the outstanding balance owed on account #...4931. Plaintiff also requested that they investigate his claim and correct the negative credit reporting on his credit profile.
- 17. On or about October 3, 2008, CHASE filed a law suit against Plaintiff for CHASE account #....4931.
 - 18. On or about October 24, 2008, Plaintiff received correspondence from CHASE Vice President, Assistant General Counsel Arthur W. Shwachman acknowledging receipt of his letter dated September 26, 2008, expressing sympathy regarding the identity theft and fraud occurring on his account. Mr. Schwachman offered to settle the case in full upon receiving a payment in the amount of $3,342.43. Also, the letter stated upon receipt and clearance of the settlement amount, they would file a dismissal of the lawsuit against him, and would instruct all three major credit reporting agencies to delete this account from his credit profile.

- 19. On or about December 8, 2008, Plaintiff sent the second (2) of six (6) letters to CHASE outlining the identity theft issue and the sequence of events that led to the outstanding balance owed on account #...4931. Plaintiff also requested that they investigate his claim and correct the negative credit reporting on his credit profile.
- 20. On or about December 30, 2008, Plaintiff received correspondence from CHASE accepting the terms of Plaintiffs letter dated December 8, 2008, agreeing to remove two of the three CHASE accounts from his credit profile.
- 21. On or about January 7, 2009, Plaintiff sent the third of six letters to CHASE outlining the identity theft issue and the sequence of events that led to the outstanding balance owed on account #...4931. Plaintiff also requested that they investigate his claim and correct the negative credit reporting on his credit profile.
- 22. On or about January 29, 2009, Plaintiff received a letter from Mr. Shwachman stating "In consideration of the facts and circumstances regarding account #....4931, our office will reverse the charge off and have your credit report show the account as zero days delinquent. Once the final settlement has been sent to us, contact my office so that we may inform the credit reporting agencies that the account has been settled in full."
 - 23. On or about January 30, 2009, CHASE sued Plaintiff after they had mutually agreed on a payment plan and to remove the derogatories from Plaintiff's credit profile.

- 24. On or about February 11, 2009, Plaintiff sent the fourth (4) of six (6) letters to CHASE outlining the identity theft issue and the sequence of events that led to the outstanding balance owed on account #...4931. Plaintiff also requested that they investigate his claim and correct the negative credit reporting on his credit profile.
- 25. On or about October 13, 2009, Plaintiff received correspondence from CHASE acknowledging receipt of settlement in full on account #...4931 along with a copy of the dismissal sent to the court. Plaintiff paid the agreed upon sum in full within the time they specified in the agreement that they would not report any derogatory information to the credit bureaus. The agreed upon amount offered to Plaintiff by CHASE was less than he owed them before the identity theft had occurred, and it was Plaintiff's belief that this was CHASE's way of extending good customer service to him in compensation for the damages they caused him in not heeding his warnings of illegal activity on his credit card account. Plaintiff never asked for a balance reduction, and it was never suggested under any context as being a "Charge Off" or Plaintiff would not have accepted the principal reduction. The agreement was in writing forwarded to Plaintiff directly from CHASE's attorney, yet they willfully continued to report the inaccuracies to the credit bureaus for over five years. Plaintiff wrote to dispute the derogatories no less than six times and called numerous times, and in each instance provided them with an abundance of information substantiating his claims.
- 26. On or about November 23, 2009, Plaintiff sent the fifth of six letters to CHASE outlining the identity theft issue and the sequence of events that led to the outstanding balance owed on account #...4931. Plaintiff also requested that they investigate his claim and correct the negative credit reporting on his credit profile.

- 27. On or about March 31, 2013, Plaintiff submitted an on-line dispute regarding the CHASE discrepancies.
- 28. On or about April 22, 2013, Plaintiff received a response from EQUIFAX regarding his CHASE dispute. The response was that EQUIFAX verified that the account belonged to Plaintiff.
- 29. On or about June 24, 2013, Plaintiff sent a dispute letter to EQUIFAX regarding the CHASE identity theft issue.
- 30. On or about July 19, 2013, Plaintiff received correspondence from CHASE indicating that based on an agreement made with Attorney, Arthur Shwachman, the status which reflected that CHASE account #....4931had been taken as a loss to the bank was removed. This letter stated that CHASE provided updated information to the credit-reporting agencies to amend their records and delete the account from his credit profile.
- 31. On or about June 23, 2013, Plaintiff sent the sixth letter to CHASE outlining the identity theft issue and the sequence of events that led to the outstanding balance owed on account #...4931. Plaintiff also requested that they investigate his claim and correct the negative credit reporting on his credit profile.
- 32. On or about September 16, 2013, Plaintiff received correspondence from DLJ Financial advising him that he was declined for a refinance through LP, Freddie Mac's underwriting system because of too many disputed accounts on his credit profile.
- 33. On or about November 23, 1013, Plaintiff discovered that EQUIFAX was reporting CHASE account #...4931 as "Paid in Collection" and "Account Paid For Less Than Full Balance" under the Derogatory Accounts heading.
- 34. On or about January 24, 2014, Plaintiff discovered that EQUIFAX was still reporting CHASE account #...4931 as: Condition: derogatory, Status: Collection/Charge-off, Remarks: Settlement accepted on this account.

- 35. On or about September 26, 2008, December 8, 2008, January 7, 2009, February 11, 2009, November 23, 2009, and June 28, 2013, Plaintiff submitted correspondence to CHASE requesting that they investigate his claim and correct the negative credit reporting on his credit profile.
- 36. Plaintiff complied with all requests of each of the Defendants to provide information in order to have the erroneous marks removed from his credit reports. Despite the insistence of Plaintiff, the Defendants, and each of them, failed to correct the errors and failed to undertake sufficient investigations upon being notified of the errors.
- 37. Within the past several years, Defendants, and each of them, willfully violated the provisions of the Fair Credit Reporting Act in at least the following respects:
- a. By willfully and negligently failing, in the preparation of the consumer report concerning Plaintiff, to follow reasonable procedures to assure maximum possible accuracy of the information in the report;
- b. By willfully and negligently failing to correct, after receiving ample notice, information about the Plaintiff which defendants knew, or should have known, was incomplete and/or inaccurate;
- c. By willfully and negligently failing to correct and/or delete the incomplete and inaccurate information in Plaintiff's file after conducting an investigation;
- d. By willfully and negligently failing to conduct an adequate investigation of Plaintiff's complaints, and by willfully and negligently failing to implement corrective actions once the outcome of such investigations were known, or should have been known, to the defendants;
- e. By willfully and negligently failing to provide subsequent users of the report with the Plaintiff's statement of dispute or a summary thereof;

- f. By willfully and negligently changing account numbers and account number designations so as to make reinvestigation and deletion more difficult for the consumer, but in turn more lucrative for bureaus and furnishers because derogatory account information will remain on credit reports longer;
- g. By willfully and negligently failing to provide notice to Plaintiff of the furnishing of negative credit information to credit reporting agencies,
- h. By willfully and negligently failing to place a fraud alert on plaintiff's credit files, as required by 15 U.S.C. Section 1681c-1;
- i. By willfully and negligently failing to put a block on the identity theft account or accounts, as required by 15 U.S.C. Section 1681s-2; and,
- j. By willfully and negligently failing to provide such information to the credit bureaus indicating the full nature, reasons and extent of Plaintiff's dispute, and thus causing the credit report to the credit bureaus to be inaccurate and incomplete.
- 38. As a proximate result of the actions of the Defendants, and each of them, Plaintiff has been damaged in an amount which will be proven at time of trial. As provided under the cited law, Plaintiff is entitled to actual damages, pain and suffering, punitive damages, penalties, costs and attorney fees.
- 39. Plaintiff alleges that defendants, and each of them, have willfully violated FCRA with respect to Plaintiff and towards others similarly situated. Specifically, defendants deliberately have inefficient procedures for correcting their credit files, because they know that a certain number of consumers will either be intimidated or too frustrated to continuously fight back against the constant onslaught of collection activities for invalid debts. Defendants, and each of them, know that a certain number of consumers would rather pay than fight, even if the debt is not actually owed. These defendants know that their systems intimidate consumers so they'll pay debts even if not valid or not completely valid. These facts were not disclosed to the Plaintiff and are not disclosed to the borrowing public at large.

SECOND CAUSE OF ACTION

[VIOLATION OF CALIFORNIA CONSUMER CREDIT REPORTING AGENCIES ACT

AGAINST CHASE AND DOES 1-10, INCLUSIVE.]

- 40. Plaintiff incorporates all preceding paragraphs as though alleged in full in this cause of action.
- 41. In committing the false credit reporting and in continuing to falsely credit-report plaintiff after notice from him and from the credit bureaus, defendants CHASE and DOES 1-10, Inclusive, have violated Cal. Civ. Code Section 1785.25 (a).
- 42. As a consequence of these violations, Plaintiff has suffered both general and special damages according to proof, as well as punitive damages under the CCRAA statute, attorney's fees and costs.

WHEREFORE, Plaintiff prays for judgment as follows:

- 1. For general and special damages according to proof at trial;
- 2. For statutory penalties for each separate statutory violation where allowed by statute;
- 3. For punitive damages against defendants according to proof at trial and using the applicable punitive damages standards from the involved statutes;
 - 4. For attorney's fees where authorized by statute or law;
 - 5. For costs of suit;
 - 6. For such other relief as the court deems just and proper.

v. PLAINTIFF v. Equifax Information Services LLC, et al.,	NOTICE TO PARTIES OF COURT-DIRECTED ADR PROGRAM
DEFENDANT	T(S)

NOTICE TO PARTIES:

It is the policy of this Court to encourage settlement of civil litigation when such is in the best interest of the parties. The Court favors any reasonable means, including alternative dispute resolution (ADR), to accomplish this goal. See Civil L.R. 16-15. Unless exempted by the trial judge, parties in all civil cases must participate in an ADR process before trial. See Civil L.R. 16-15.1.

The district judge to whom the above-referenced case has been assigned is participating in an ADR Program that presumptively directs this case to either the Court Mediation Panel or to private mediation. See General Order No. 11-10, §5. For more information about the Mediation Panel, visit the Court website, www.cacd.uscourts.gov, under "ADR."

Pursuant to Civil L.R. 26-1(c), counsel are directed to furnish and discuss with their clients the attached ADR Notice To Parties before the conference of the parties mandated by Fed.R.Civ.P. 26(f). Based upon the consultation with their clients and discussion with opposing counsel, counsel must indicate the following in their Joint 26(f) Report: 1) whether the case is best suited for mediation with a neutral from the Court Mediation Panel or private mediation; and 2) when the mediation should occur. See Civil L.R. 26-1(c).

(05/13)	NOTICE TO PARTIES OF COURT-DIRECTED ADR PROGRAM

UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT CENTRAL DISTRICT OF CALIFORNIA

NOTICE TO PARTIES: COURT POLICY ON SETTLEMENT AND USE OF ALTERNATIVE DISPUTE RESOLUTION (ADR)

Counsel are required to furnish and discuss this Notice with their clients.

Despite the efforts of the courts to achieve a fair, timely and just outcome in all cases, litigation has become an often lengthy and expensive process. For this reason, it is this Court's policy to encourage parties to attempt to settle their disputes, whenever possible, through alternative dispute resolution (ADR).

ADR can reduce both the time it takes to resolve a case and the costs of litigation, which can be substantial. ADR options include mediation, arbitration (binding or non-binding), neutral evaluation (NE), conciliation, mini-trial and fact-finding. ADR can be either Court-directed or privately conducted.

The Court's ADR Program offers mediation through a panel of qualified and impartial attorneys who will encourage the fair, speedy and economic resolution of civil actions. Panel Mediators each have at least ten years of legal experience and are appointed by the Court. They volunteer their preparation time and the first three hours of a mediation session. This is a cost-effective way for parties to explore potential avenues of resolution.

This Court requires that counsel discuss with their clients the ADR options available and instructs them to come prepared to discuss the parties' choice of ADR option (settlement conference before a magistrate judge; Court Mediation Panel; private mediation) at the initial scheduling conference. Counsel are also required to indicate the client's choice of ADR option in advance of that conference. See Civil L.R. 26-1(c) and Fed.R.Civ.P. 26(f).

Clients and their counsel should carefully consider the anticipated expense of litigation, the uncertainties as to outcome, the time it will take to get to trial, the time an appeal will take if a decision is appealed, the burdens on a client's time, and the costs and expenses of litigation in relation to the amounts or stakes involved.

With more than 15,000 civil cases filed in the District in 2012, less than 1 percent actually went to trial. Most cases are settled between the parties; voluntarily dismissed; resolved through Court-directed or other forms of ADR; or dismissed by the Court as lacking in merit or for other reasons provided by law.

For more information about the Court's ADR Program, the Mediation Panel, and the profiles of mediators, visit the Court website, www.cacd.uscourts.gov, under "ADR."
